Brenda Miles

Brenda Miles is the Director of Benefits with Papa John's International, Inc., and has worked solely in the area of Health & Welfare benefits of Papa John's for 17 years. Brenda oversees benefits nationally for all 20,000 team members in Papa John's corporate owned locations. She also collaborates with Papa John's onsite health clinic physician on corporate wellness initiatives and ensures clinic services and the medical plan benefits align where possible.

Prior to Papa John's, Brenda worked many years in Human Resources for several law firms and has seen the changes to health and well-being dramatically evolve over the years to where we are today.

Brenda is involved in many human resources and employee benefits related organizations and holds her "Certified Employee Benefits Specialist" (CEBS) designation, her Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) certification from the HR Certification Institute and her SHRM-SCP certification from the Society for Human Resource Management.