

Randa Deaton, M.A.

Randa Deaton is currently serving as the Co-Executive Director of the Kentuckiana Health Collaborative (KHC) and the Corporate Director of the UAW/Ford Community Healthcare Initiative in Louisville, Kentucky. She has over 20 years of experience leading organizational change and development. In her current role, she is responsible for building leading, collaborating, and aligning multiple key healthcare stakeholders to drive innovative, systemic improvements to health and healthcare in the community. The KHC is a non-profit coalition deeply committed to supporting and leading multi-stakeholder collaborative efforts that promote healthcare transparency, measurement, and transformation.