

Natalie Middaugh, MPH

Project Coordinator, Kentuckiana Health Coordinator

Natalie Middaugh is the project coordinator at the Kentuckiana Health Collaborative, a nonprofit multi-stakeholder organization that works to improve the health status and healthcare delivery system in Greater Louisville, Kentucky, and Southern Indiana. In her current role, she is responsible for facilitating multiple projects in partnership with the Kentucky Opioid Response Effort (KORE), including educational initiatives around Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT), and addressing opioid use disorder in the workplace.

Natalie earned her bachelor's degree in public health from the University of Louisville in 2016. In 2018, she completed her master's in public health with a concentration in health promotion and behavioral sciences, also from the University of Louisville.
